Minimal Homeschool Planner

In this download, you will find 4 total files.

The files that start with the word FULL, are two setups that are ready to print. The difference between the two files is simply the Monthly Calendar style being style 1 or style 2. You can see the difference by viewing the files.

The FULL files are very close to how we arrange and print our physical Charlotte Mason Inspired Homeschool Planner. (:

Feel free to get creative and print them as you'd like them.

Tips for printing:

- Most of the pages are designed to be fairly wide with small margins in order to allow for disc and spiral binding work well. If you are printing for a 3 ring binder, I recommend hitting the "fit to page" option to give you larger margins for hole punching OR do a test print of a specific page before finalizing your print.
- If you are not already and have it in your budget to get Adobe Pro, you can use the organize button to create a file and arrange the individual pages how you'd like them to print.
- If your print is coming out too faint, consider going into settings and setting your settings to print darker. Most printers have this option. Because all printers differ in options and uses, your print may not look exactly like mine. If you need help with your particular printer, please email me at hello@annavancepaperco.com and be sure to include your printer brand and model and I'll do my best to help you with print settings.
